

AAIS Conference 2022

online May 13-15 and in person in Bologna May 29 - June 1

FOSCOLO RELOADED: New Perspectives on Ugo Foscolo's Work

During the last three decades Ugo Foscolo's work has gained new attention by scholars, which leads to a general rethinking of his work and the creation of CRIF (Centro di Ricerca Interuniversitario Foscolo). The roundtable, both online and in presence, aims to discuss new perspectives on Foscolo's work, including the project of new critical editions, the reconstruction of writer's allegeable library, his figurative world and of his milieu. Part of the online session will be devoted to the celebration of the anniversary of publication of the Dissertation of an Ancient Hymn to the Graces.

Please send an abstract (max 250 words, in Italian or in English) of your proposal and a short biography (max 100 words) to Daniela Shalom Vagata (danielashalom.vagata@gmail.com). Please indicate whether you wish to speak in the online session or in presence in Bologna by 31 January 2022.

Daniela Shalom Vagata, Masaryk University
danielashalom.vagata@gmail.com